Pursuant to Wyoming HB 37, this filing eliminates the $3.50 State Telephone Assistance Plan credit for residential customers. This filing also increases the rate applicable to the optional Late Payment Charge and Convenience Fee for residential and business customers effective July 1, 2015. Customers were notified of the increases at least 30 days in advance of the changes.

If you have questions concerning this filing please contact me.

Sincerely,

PURPOSE OF FILING:

This filing complies with Wyoming HB 37 to eliminate the $3.50 State Telephone Assistance Plan (TAP) credit for residential customers.

The filing also increases the rate applicable to the Late Payment Charge and the Convenience Fee for residential and business customers effective July 1, 2015. The late payment charge applies to all billed balances which are not paid by the billing date shown on the next bill. The Convenience Fee is an optional charge assessed when customers request a one-time payment, either by electronic funds transfer or by credit card.

NOTICE TO CUSOTMERS:

Not applicable.

RATIONALE FOR CHANGES:

In the process of making any necessary rule changes, CenturyLink also included some non-substantive language changes to the extent possible to have the same or similar language between its three (3) Company Price Schedules.
